

SUBJECT English	GRADE 6	CURRICULUM Cambridge Lower Secondary	TIME 30 minutes	TOTAL 30 marks
---------------------------	-------------------	---	---------------------------	--------------------------

Name	Class	Date	Score / 30
-------------	--------------	-------------	-------------------

MY LEARNING GOAL

I can tell the difference between what I do every day and what I am doing right now, and I use the correct form of the verb for each one.

Before you start

- Read every sentence twice before you answer.
- Underline the signal word — the word that tells you when the action happens.
- Answer every question in pencil. There are 20 questions and 30 marks in total.

SECTION A · RECOGNISE THE TENSE

Questions 1–8 · 8 marks · one mark each

Choose the correct form. Circle a, b or c.

- My grandmother _____ tea every afternoon.
a) is drinking b) drinks c) drink
- Look! The bus _____ at the stop now.
a) stops b) stop c) is stopping
- Water _____ at 100 °C.
a) is boiling b) boils c) boil
- Be quiet — the baby _____ at the moment.
a) sleeps b) is sleeping c) sleep
- We _____ to school on Fridays.
a) don't go b) aren't going c) not go
- Sara _____ her new shoes today.
a) wears b) wear c) is wearing
- I _____ the answer to this question.
a) am knowing b) know c) knows
- The market _____ at six o'clock every morning.
a) is opening b) open c) opens

SECTION B · USE THE TENSE

Questions 9–18 · 14 marks

B1 · Complete each sentence with the correct form of the verb in brackets.

Questions 9–14 · one mark each

SUPPORT · WORD BANK

start · rain · carry · study · help · close

The word bank gives you the verb. You must decide the tense.

9. The lesson _____ (start) at eight o'clock every day.
10. Take an umbrella — it _____ (rain) outside now.
11. My brother _____ (carry) the heavy bags at the moment.
12. Omar usually _____ (study) for one hour after school.
13. Listen — the teacher _____ (help) the new student right now.
14. The library _____ (close) at four o'clock on Thursdays.

B2 · Each sentence has one mistake. Write the sentence correctly.

Questions 15–18 · two marks each

15. She is going to the market every Saturday.

16. Look! The bus come now.

17. I am knowing the answer to this question.

18. My father watch the news at the moment.

SECTION C · CHALLENGE

Questions 19–20 · 8 marks · think, then explain

19. Read the two sentences below. Explain why the verb is different in each one.

(4 marks)

- a) Amir plays football on Tuesdays.
- b) Amir is playing football now.

20. Write two sentences about your own Saturday.

One sentence about something you always do, and one about something you are doing right now. Use a different signal word in each sentence. (4 marks)

STRETCH · FOR EARLY FINISHERS

Some verbs describe a state and never take the -ing form: know, like, want, believe, belong. Write one sentence using any of them, then explain your choice in no more than five words.

MARK DISTRIBUTION

Section A · 8 marks (DOK 1)
(DOK 3) Total · 30 marks

Section B · 14 marks (DOK 2)

Section C · 8 marks

Q	CORRECT ANSWER	MARKS	DOK	MARKING GUIDANCE
1	b) drinks	1	1	Accept the letter or the full form. No half marks.
2	c) is stopping	1	1	Accept the letter or the full form. No half marks.
3	b) boils	1	1	Accept the letter or the full form. No half marks.
4	b) is sleeping	1	1	Accept the letter or the full form. No half marks.
5	a) don't go	1	1	Accept the letter or the full form. No half marks.
6	c) is wearing	1	1	Accept the letter or the full form. No half marks.
7	b) know	1	1	Reject (a): "know" is a state verb and takes no -ing form.
8	c) opens	1	1	Accept the letter or the full form. No half marks.
9	starts	1	2	Third-person singular -s is required. Deduct the mark if it is missing.
10	is raining	1	2	The signal word places the action now — the auxiliary must be present.
11	is carrying	1	2	The signal word places the action now — the auxiliary must be present.
12	studies	1	2	Third-person singular -s is required. Deduct the mark if it is missing.
13	is helping	1	2	The signal word places the action now — the auxiliary must be present.
14	closes	1	2	Third-person singular -s is required. Deduct the mark if it is missing.
15	She goes to the market every Saturday.	2	2	A routine with the signal words "every Saturday" takes the present simple. One mark for identifying the error, one for the corrected sentence.

Q	CORRECT ANSWER	MARKS	DOK	MARKING GUIDANCE
16	Look! The bus is coming now.	2	2	“Look!” and “now” signal an action happening at this moment — present continuous. One mark for identifying the error, one for the corrected sentence.
17	I know the answer to this question.	2	2	“Know” describes a state, not an action, so it never takes the -ing form. One mark for identifying the error, one for the corrected sentence.
18	My father is watching the news at the moment.	2	2	“At the moment” signals the present continuous; “watch” also needs the auxiliary “is”. One mark for identifying the error, one for the corrected sentence.
19	See the rubric below	4	3	Two marks for naming routine versus action-happening-now; two for quoting the signal words “on Tuesdays” and “now”.
20	See the rubric below	4	3	Two marks per sentence: one for the correct tense, one for a signal word that agrees with it.

Rubric for the two challenge questions

MARKS	QUESTION 19 · EXPLAINING	QUESTION 20 · WRITING	WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE
4	Both uses named correctly and both signal words quoted.	Both sentences correct, two different signal words, tenses agree.	Secure at DOK 3.
3	Both uses named, only one signal word quoted.	Both sentences correct but the same signal word twice.	Understands, imprecise.
2	One use named correctly.	One sentence correct.	Partial control.
1	Repeats the sentences without explaining.	Signal words present but the tense does not follow them.	Recognises, cannot produce.
0	No response, or the explanation is unrelated.	No response.	Reteach from Section A.

CHECK BEFORE YOU MARK A WHOLE CLASS

8 + 14 + 8 = 30. Every question in the key matches a question on the worksheet, and no answer appears anywhere on the student pages. Mark Section C against the rubric, not against your own wording.